

Mission Report

One Day Workshop on Indonesian Language and Culture
13-14 July 2018
Chiangmai Vocational College, Chiang Mai, Thailand

Prepared by

Montita Ounpuk, Special Coordinator

A. SEAMEO Officials and Staff Member on Mission

1. Mr Achmad Purnomo Wijaya, Special Coordinator
2. Ms Montita Ounpuk, Special Coordinator
3. Mr Giang Tran, Intern
4. Ms Anastasia Sylvia W Pongoh, Intern

B. Background, Description and Objectives of the Activity

With reference to the SEA TVET Student Exchange Programme, Chiang Mai Vocational College in collaboration with OVEC, Thailand and SEAMEO Secretariat are planning to implement the student internship exchange programme with Indonesia in September 2018 for 30 students of Higher Diploma in Hospitality. Therefore, Chiangmai Vocational College conducts a One Day workshop on Indonesian Language and Culture on 14 July 2018 at Chiangmai Vocational College. The workshop aims to improve the students' capacity and understanding of Indonesian language and culture.

C. Participants

The workshop was attended by 30 students who are higher diploma students, majoring in hospitality and tourism from Chiangmai Vocational College, Chiang Mai, Thailand.

D. Organisers

Chiangmai Vocational College, Chiang Mai, Thailand

E. Highlights of the Activity/Summary Points

Highlights of the Activities:

- The workshop was welcomed by Mr Prasan Panlima, director of Chiangmai Vocational College, followed by Ms Apsorn Konrad, teacher from CMVC.

The morning session:

- Mr Tran Giang introduced SEAMEO team and led a warm-up activity for getting to know each other's. After that, the activities turned to Indonesian session.
- Mr Purnomo presented and inspired briefly general information of Indonesia such as history, geography, population and culture.
- Mr Tran Giang led a game to students aiming to encourage students practicing their listening and speaking skills in Bahasa language.

The afternoon session:

- Mr Tran Giang led an activity that brought students to work in team and enjoy the session after lunch.
- Ms Anastasia taught survivable words and basic vocabularies for students such as number, day, month, currency and directions. Afterwards, the instructors introduced useful applications for using in Indonesia such as Gojek application and XE Currency.
- Mr Purnomo and Ms Anastasia taught basic conversation to students, demonstrated by Mr Giang Tran and Ms Montita.
- The workshop ended by closing speech by Ms Montita and a representative student from Chiangmai Vocational College.
- Group Photos

F. Role/Participation of SEAMEO Secretariat

Purnomo

- Preparing hand-outs for students and teachers
- Teaching general information of Indonesian such as history, geography, Culture and Bahasa language
- Taking photos of the activities

Anastasia

- Preparing hand-outs for students and teachers
- Teaching Bahasa language such as number, day, month, year, survivable words, currency
- Taking photos of the activities

Montita

- Coordinating with CMVC for workshop venue, hotel, transportation and arrangement
- Translating the activities from English to Thai
- Taking photos of the activities
- Writing a Mission Report

Giang

- MC and moderator
- Introducing SEAMEO team
- Leading games during break time
- Writing a write up for publishing on SEAMEO website

G. Follow-up Actions Needed

1. Preparing a mission report and a write-up for SEAMEO's website.

H. Appendices/Related Meeting Materials and Outputs

- List of Participating students

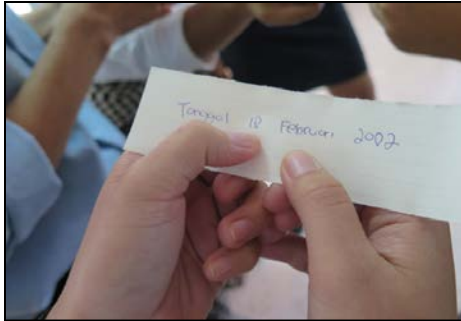

I. Photos

Opening Ceremony

The morning session

The afternoon session

Group Photo