

Mission Report

One Day Workshop on Indonesian Language and Culture 25-26 August 2018
Kanchanaburi Vocational College, Kanchanaburi, Thailand

Prepared by

Karen Ngai, Intern

A. SEAMEO Officials and Staff Member on Mission

1. Mr Achmad Purnomo Wijaya, Special Coordinator
2. Dr Sajarwo Anggai, Special Coordinator
3. Mr Giang Tran, Intern
4. Ms Ngai Tse Ling Karen, Intern

B. Background, Description and Objectives of the Activity

With reference to the SEA TVET Student Exchange Programme, Kanchanaburi Vocational College in collaboration with OVEC, Thailand and SEAMEO Secretariat are planning to implement the student internship exchange programme with Indonesia in 2018-2019 for students of Higher Diploma and diploma in Computer study, Accounting, Marketing, Hospitality and Tourism Management, Logistic and etc. Therefore, Kanchanaburi Vocational College conducts a One Day workshop on Indonesian Language and Culture on 25 August 2018 at Kanchanaburi Vocational College. The workshop aims to improve the students' capacity and understanding of Indonesian language and culture.

C. Participants

The workshop was attended by 110 students who are higher diploma and diploma students, majoring in computer, accounting, marketing, hospitality and tourism, and logistic from Kanchanaburi Vocational College, Kanchanaburi, Thailand.

D. Organisers

Kanchanaburi Vocational College, Kanchanaburi, Thailand

E. Highlights of the Activity/Summary

Points Highlights of the Activities:

- The workshop was welcomed by Mr Parkdee Phomket, deputy director of Planning and Cooperation of Kanchanaburi Vocational College.
- Group Photos

The morning session:

- Mr Tran Giang introduced SEAMEO team and led a warm-up activity for getting to know each other's. After that, the activities turned to Indonesian session and introduced general information of Indonesia such as history, geography, population and culture.
- Ms Karen Ngai introduced the culture of Indonesia to students such as religion, food and clothing
- Mr Purnomo delivered basic instruction for How to Survive in Indonesia, such as basic Bahasa Indonesia for communication and usable Apps in Indonesia. After that, he led the game Body Part for student's body warm up.

The afternoon session:

- Mr Purnomo led an activity Brain Gym that brought students to train up their brain after lunch and enjoy the session after lunch. After that, he taught Bahasa Indonesian, like basic vocabularies for students such as number, day, month, currency and directions.
- The instructors introduced the Number Game, to recall student's memory of Numbers in Bahasa Indonesia and to encourage them to speak up.
- Mr Purnomo taught basic conversation to students, demonstrated by Mr Giang Tran and Ms Karen Ngai. After that, he led the Puzzle Game to invite students work in group.
- The workshop ended by closing speech by Ms Giang and a representative student from Kanchanaburi Vocational College.

F. Role/Participation of SEAMEO

Secretariat Purnomo

- Preparing hand-outs for students and teachers
- Teaching Bahasa Indonesia such as number, day, month, year, survival words, currency
- Major instructor for Bahasa Indonesia Language

Sajarwo Anggai

- Assisting Purnomo with lesson preparation as native speaker
- Video recording and photo taking

Karen

- Facilitator
- Teaching Indonesian Culture such as religion, food and clothing
- Taking photos of the activities
- Writing a Mission Report

Giang

- Team leader/ Main Coordinator
- MC and moderator of the training
- Teaching general information of Indonesian such as history, geography, culture and Indonesian language
- Leading games during the training
- Writing a write up for publishing on SEAMEO website

G. Follow-up Actions Needed

1. Preparing a mission report and a write-up for SEAMEO's website.

H. Photos

Opening Ceremony

Group Photos

Morning Session

Afternoon Session

